2018 UTK Frogman’s Print and Paper Workshop Scholarships

The University of Tennessee Printmaking Program can provide one $800 scholarship for a student to attend a one-week course session at the Frogman’s Print Workshop this summer in Omaha, Nebraska. The $750 stipend will cover the tuition for one week. Students will be responsible for paying for housing ($230/week per person for quad suite dormitory housing), meals and transportation. The selected student will need to pay for costs in advance and then get reimbursed through the School of Art.

Session 1: July 2-7, 2018
Session 2: July 9-14, 2018

Course offerings include mezzotint, stone lithography, book binding, monotype, plate lithography, photopolymer intaglio, etc. For a complete list of courses and instructors, as well as more information see: http://www.frogmans.net/index.htm

We are seeking applications from UTK Graduate and Undergraduate students interested in attending. Proposals should be sent to Beauvais Lyons (blyons@utk.edu) by January 15, 2018 and should include:

1. Your name, address, phone and email.
2. List two of the one-week courses you are interested in taking in ranked order.
3. A statement on the importance of taking these courses to your artistic development.
